Rayna Montoya

Rayna W. Montoya is a Northern New Mexican native that currently attends New Mexico State University where she is pursuing her Bachelor's in Business. She was in the top 3% of her 1995 high school graduating class. During the finale of high school, she accepted an internship through the University of New Mexico – Los Alamos branch and the Los Alamos National Laboratories to participate in the research of science and mathematics through a program known as P.R.I.S.M. She interned for two summer sessions.

Rayna continued her education at Northern New Mexico Community College. Among the many scholarships that she received were the Presidential Scholarship and The Department of Energy scholarship. Rayna attended NNMCC for 3 years where she was served as Treasure and Vice-President of the National Honor Society, Phi Theta Kappa-Alpha Iota Sigma. She was also on the Dean's List during her studies there.

In 1998, Rayna accepted a position as the Marketing Assistant for the newly multi-million renovated La Posada de Santa Fe Resort & Spa in downtown Santa Fe. During her employment at La Posada, the hotel gained exclusive status by becoming part of the Rock Resorts and Leading Hotels of the World. Other management positions that Rayna was recruited for in the hospitality business were as the Sales & Catering Assistant for The Hotel Loretto and the Catering Coordinator/Food and Beverage Assistant for the 5 star Eldorado Hotel all located in downtown Santa Fe.

In 2004, Rayna became Assistant to the Vice President of MJG Corporation located in Albuquerque New Mexico where she was responsible for financials of 32 franchise locations. In 2006, Rayna accepted a position as Office Manager for Orthosynetics-Four Corners Orthodontics in Farmington New Mexico. She contributed to growing the practice and was promoted to Executive Director in 2007, where she oversaw a staff of 26 employees. As Executive Director, Rayna led the office in exceeding financial goals and empowering her colleagues to set the higher standard.