

COLLABORATIVE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS FOR THE AMERICAS

COLABORACIÓN EDUCATIVA PARA LAS AMÉRICAS

October 9-11, 2014

RE: Conference registration fee and tax deductions
CEPA Leadership Conference, October 9-11, 2014
The Millennial Generation: Developing Tomorrow's Leaders
El Tropicano Riverwalk Hotel, San Antonio, Texas

Dear Conference Delegate:

Your registration for the Collaborative Educational Programs for the Americas leadership conference is appreciated. All gifts provide much-needed funds to conduct conferences, seminars and forums to promote leadership. CEPA depends on donations and volunteer leadership.

Most contributions and other expenses incurred in support of CEPA are tax deductible in accordance with IRS regulations. CEPA enjoys tax exempt status under IRS Section 501 (c) (3) – Tax ID# 33-0854333. Be advised, however, to consult with a tax professional to determine if you can deduct the cost of the meals which were part of your registration fee. The cost of the meals was $112.00.

The goals of the conference are to: 1) encourage, mentor and support new and upcoming leaders in diverse fields of interest, 2) improve leadership through collaboration, and 3) maintain a focus on humanistic values and ethical practices. We are interested in developing independent, innovative and creative thinkers.

Again, your generosity and dedication to CEPA allows growth in our programs and in the potential of our future leaders. Financial support from friends at any level of giving is crucial to our success as a Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation.

If you have any questions or concerns about your donation, please call me at 575-532-1081 or email me at cepa2000@earthlink.net. Thanks again for your support.

Sincerely,

Fred J. Rodríguez

Fred J. Rodríguez, Ph.D.
President/CEO